

BI Norwegian Business School

Oslo, Norway

The BI Norwegian Business School (BI-NBS), is one of Norway's largest educational institutions with the main campus in Oslo. BI-NBS offers the largest number of courses and programs related to business administration, economics, management and marketing in the country. BI-NBS has some 18,500 full-time and part-time students with approximately 350 faculty members. Most of Norway's major enterprises in industry, trade and services are linked with the BI Norwegian Business School through various cooperative agreements.

BI-NBS offers extensive range of research-based programs. The Master of Business Administration (MBA) and Master of Science (MSc) programs are offered in English. BI-NBS currently offers the only accredited full-time MBA program in Norway. The 11-month intensive MBA program is divided into four 10-week terms, beginning in August and ending in June. The program's special features are its strong leadership, strategy, and group orientation as well as in-company consulting work and week-long study tour to a foreign country. The two-year MSc program offers students an in-depth, multifaceted understanding of how the world of international business operates and how managers can deal with it successfully. The MSc program, which is also taught in English has almost 50% foreign students in the program. Areas of specialization include: Strategy and International Business; Financial Economics; Marketing; and Information Technology Management.

Eligible MBA/MS students from Texas A&M University (TAMU) can take courses during BI-NBS's fall (mid August – mid December) or spring (early January – late May). You must register for a minimum of nine credit hours of course work each semester at TAMU while you are enrolled at NSM-BI.
