

Center for International Business Studies
Mays Business School
Texas A&M University CIBER

Updated: 08/04/2010

European Business School (EBS)

International University Schloss Reichartshausen, Oestrich-Winkel, Germany

Located in Rheingau/Wiesbaden outside Frankfurt, EBS is a dynamic and progressive business school. The entrepreneurial nature of the school is an integral part of their identity. As the first private business school in Germany, EBS has been committed to innovation since its founding in 1971. Students, researchers, and teachers draw on the following fundamental values to give EBS a distinctive profile:

- ❖ They are market-oriented and internationally focused as well as politically independent and non-dogmatic.
- ❖ They stand for excellence in education and continuing studies as well as in research and practical training.
- ❖ They foster cultural diversity and demand a strong sense of responsibility, integrity and commitment from themselves.

Their mission, "We develop leaders" says it all. They try to achieve their goal through emphasis on research and close contact with the business community. EBS believes that leaders must possess outstanding academic ability plus hands-on and international experience, as well as demonstrate solid integrity.

EBS is located in one of Europe's strongest economic regions: the Rhine-Main area of Germany which is home to more than 320,000 businesses. The financial sector and the aviation/logistics industries are major employers in the region.

Eligible MBA/MS students from TAMU can take courses during EBS' fall or spring semester. Students must enroll for a minimum of nine credit hours of course work per semester. EBS offers Master's Programs in Management, Business & Law, Finance, and Real Estate.

Language of instruction: English

Fall semester: September to December Spring semester: January to June

Estimated incremental cost of studying at EBS:

Airfare: $1200 (apx.)
Additional living expenses: $ 300 / month

Scholarships & Financial Aid Available

To enroll in this program, MBA Students please contact:
Ms. Jordan Kleckley, MBA Program Office, 390F Wehner Building
Mays Business School, Texas A&M University
Telephone: 979-845-5194 Fax: 979-862-2393

<http://cibs.tamu.edu>

Look for the GRAD REEP GRID under the Study Abroad tab