

IPADE

Instituto Panamerica de Alta Direccion de Empresa, Mexico City, Mexico

The Instituto Panamerico De Alta Direccion de Empresa (IPADE) in Mexico City is a private Graduate Business School of the Universidad Panamericana. IPADE, the "Harvard" of Mexico, uses the case method of teaching and is considered to be one of the leading graduate business school in Latin America. It only offers MBA and EMBA programs. IPADE business school was established in 1967 by a group of prominent businessmen and their main mission has been to develop business leaders for tomorrow's Mexico based on the following principles:

1. Enhancing top management practices in Mexico to a professional level.
2. Integrating globalization in business culture.
3. Promoting corporate social responsibility and ethics in business education.

Texas A&M University (TAMU) business students who have completed their first year of the Masters program will have the opportunity to study for one or two quarters at IPADE, in Mexico City. You could receive up to 12 hours of elective course credit toward your Texas A&M masters degree. A significant number of courses are offered in English.

Language Requirement: Courses: Approx. 50% Spanish & 50% English

Dates of Program (quarters): September - December
January - March; April - June

Estimated Incremental Cost of Programs:

Airfare: $500 (approximate)
Additional living expenses: $100 / month

Scholarships & Financial Aid Available

To enroll in the program, MBA Students contact:

Ms. Jordan Kleckley, MBA Program Office, 390F Wehner Building
Mays Business School, Texas A&M University
Telephone: 979-845-5194 Fax: 979-862-2393

MS Students contact:

Your MS Program Advisor

<http://cibs.tamu.edu>

Look for the GRAD REEP GRID under the Study Abroad tab