

CHINA STUDY ABROAD 2012

Beijing Jiaotong University ~ Beijing, China
May 15 - June 19, 2012

Participants in this specially designed, five week intensive, business program in China will receive six credit hours as follows:

MGMT 450: International Environment of Business

IBUS 301: Business Study Abroad (Will convert to IBUS 455 Asian Business Environment on return)

The Summer 2012 China Business Study Abroad program will be conducted with Beijing Jiaotong

University a partner institution of Mays Business School that is located in Beijing.

Application Deadline: November 10, 2011

Language of instruction: English

Eligibility: This program is open only to Mays Business School students who could be admitted to upper level studies prior to participation in the program. Mays students desiring to participate in the program must have a minimum cumulative GPR of 2.5. Selection to the program is on a competitive basis.

Faculty Information: The Beijing Study Abroad program will be conducted by Dr. David Flint, (MGMT Dept.) Mays Business School, and professors from Beijing Jiaotong University.

Estimated Program Costs = $2,600.00 covering

- Lodging/room (shared with a roommate)
- A meal allowance
- Travel to China institutions and corporate visits
- Group cultural activities/visits to Xi'an, Tianjin, Great Wall, Kung Fu Show, etc.

Costs Not Covered By Program Fee:

- $1,500 approx. TAMU tuition & fees
- $1,500 approx. airfare (IAH-Beijing-IAH)
- $ 360 TAMU Study Abroad Service Fee
- $ 500-1000 personal expenses (weekend travels, shopping, etc.)
- $ 200 (approx.) passport & Chinese visa fees

<http://cibs.tamu.edu/>

For More Information: Please visit the "Study Abroad" section of our website at <http://cibs.tamu.edu/> and then contact Dr. David Flint by email, gflint@mays.tamu.edu or Wehner 401-T or call CIBS, 979-845-5234.

Online application found at http://cibs.tamu.edu/articles/mays_undergraduate_study_abroad_applications.

Click on the "Apply Now" button for Beijing, China and follow the directions to complete the application process through StudioAbroad.